Exposed.

NEW YORK, November 8, 2:45 a. m.—To The Constitution: The city is much calmer. There is no trouble to-night, no excitement. The democrats claim the state by 1,300 plurality. The recounting of the vote of this city has been completed up to the 18th district, and bears out the original count, Oswald Ottendorfer running behind on the electoral ticket. All the leading democrats are absolutely confident that the final returns will show a plurality that cannot be washed out.

MR. KELLY'S VIEWS.

Hundreds of telegrams have been received from all over the country, inquiring the views of Mr.

Kelly on the election, and especially asking his opinion on New York state. In response to their inquiries, Mr. Kelly has given the following teleggrams:

have been repeatedly verified and corrected.

Every county has been heard from again to-day, and no further changes can be looked for before the official canvass is made. It is not believed that this canvass can change the result. The excitement and anxiety which have prevailed here has subsided. Cleveland's election is no longer disputed, except by politicians and officeholders dependent upon republican success for continued employment.

AS COMPILED BY THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED PRESS.

NEW YORK, November 8, 1 a. m.—[By Associated Press.]—On a careful review of the figures by districts, as furnished by the agents of the Associated Press, corrected by the returns received during the day so as to bring the record stands—

For Blaine, 558,426.

For Cleveland, 559,506.

There are eighteen districts from which returns are still behind or questioned. These in 1880 gave Garfield a plurality of 756. The counties in which the lacking districts are located are

NEW YORK, November 7.—The question, who has carried New York state, is now chiefly a question of the accurate footings of long columns of figures. The footings of the county clerks, with only a few missing, indicate that Cleveland has about 1,000 plurality. The footings of the election districts, made in the Associated Press office, indicate that Blaine has nearly an equal plurality.

Twelve districts in the state had not, up to this morning, reported at all. Some sixty others had reported, but their accuracy was questioned, and Atlanta never saw such a day as yesterday, and she never will again!

The pent up enthusiasm of twenty years;

the fruition of long deferred and oft defeated hopes; the wiping out of sectional lines; the breaking down of sectional prejudice; the burying of the bloody shirt. All combined to bring the people on the streets and turn them wild with joy.

It was a day of days, and a night of nights, and the gossip of the day and the story of the night will be found below.

Starting the Movement.

You may rely absolutely on Cleveland's election.

It was 9:45 yesterday morning when this dispatch was received in THE CONSTITUTION office.

In ten minutes a thousand democrats were in consultation as to how best to celebrate the hall was emptied instantly, and the legislature was off for the day.

In front of the capitol the broad streets were packed with 20,000 people, shouting themselves hoarse. The bands were playing "Dixie," and the yelling was deafening. Governor McDaniel was hauled down, accompanied by General Lawton.

They were received with cheers and acclamations with United States flags. Mr. Grady then announced that Governor McDaniel would address the assembled and jubilant democracy of Fulton county from the customhouse steps.

The bloody shirt, saturated with all, were fired in front of the capitol and burned, amid the wildest demonstrations of joy and approval. When this interesting ceremony was over, Mr. Grady introduced Governor McDaniel, who spoke as follows:

Fellow citizens: I congratulate the American people that there is now a prospect of bridging very differences which have for the past years separated the people of the country from the heart of each other. (Great cheering and a voice "glory to God.") I congratulate you that there now is the prospect that the rights of every American citizen, every white man, colored man, and woman will be now, and hereafter, forever secured.

IS BLAINE has wheeled in line with a safe democratic majority of over 5,000.

MR. BLAINE has not recovered from the surprise he received on Tuesday.

As a political manager Steve Elkins has no superior. We only hope the republicans will engage him permanently.

The next issue of national importance is the trial of the libel suit of James G. Blaine vs. the Indianapolis Sentinel. We have a very strong line, however, that this suit will remain forever just where it now is.

A lot of folks said we hallooed too quick. The truth is we didn't halloo hollow enough! Anybody can follow after they are out of the woods, we believe in occasionally lifting up a voice in the wilderness!

To Democratic sulkers and false prophets: "It appears that Cleveland did run pretty well after all." Yours respectfully,
THE UNDETERMINED AND UNBETTERED DEMOCRACY.

THE CERTAINTY OF CLEVELAND'S ELECTION.

The official returns from every county in New York place Mr. Cleveland's plurality at 1,600.

The absurd claims of Whitelaw Reid and the republican national committee are based upon the unreliable district returns collected by the associated press. These reports were gathered up at hap-hazard, without verification, and bear no official authorization. The plurality for Cleveland is the result of the returns of the county clerks. These clerks, at the county seats of their respective counties, have formally compiled and added up the result, and the returns thus made, officially signed and sealed, are on their way to Albany, where they will stand as the officially expressed will of the people.

Therefore, the democrats stand in possession of the deed to the presidency. To contest this deed will require much more than the empty threats of a few disappointed and hungry office seekers. There is no power on earth which will dare vitiate this title—it will stand as an authentic original paper in any court.

That the republicans should take defeat bitterly is natural in a party which has once perjured itself to gain the presidency; but they must remember that the democrats have learned a lesson since 1876, and that they intend to stand by their rights despite traitorous attacks upon them.

THE NEGRO AND HIS FRIEND.

No matter what the result of the election may be, the negro will find that his best friend is the southern democrat.

President Cleveland is his friend. Every right that they have as freemen and citizens will be jealously protected by the white man of the south who have been their neighbors for years. In their schools, at the ballot boxes, everywhere they have their full rights.

That man is the best southerner and the best democrat who stands by this doctrine and shows the negro that he is his true friend.

It will be the part of wisdom and of kindness for every man to read this article to his colored friends and advise them of its sincerity and truth. Many, even of the most intelligent, actually believe that they will be put back into slavery and many pathetic instances of grief over this presumption have fallen under our notice. This is the infamous teachings of certain carpet-baggers and scoundrels who deceived the negroes that they might use them. The sooner this belief is removed the better it will be for all concerned.

WHO WILL WEEP FOR LOGAN NOW?

One of the most contemptible men forced into official position by the war, in the United States, is Senator John A. Logan. He took pride in his vulgarity, and felt that blackguardism was the highest qualification of a patriot.

His election to the vice-presidency would have been a stain on American history only exceeded by the election of Blaine to the presidency. Happily there was a special Providence which decreed that the country should be spared this ignominy.

Not only are we relieved from the fear of having a buffoon in the vice-presidential chair, but the return of the legislative race in Illinois, show that we will be relieved from Logan's presence in the United States senate also. The Chicago Times, conceding up and down to Apperson a vote nearly twice as large as Logan's, says:

Democrats on joint ballot. This will give Illinois as senator, Lyman Trumbull, or some other reputable man. At any rate, it is the end of Logan.

THE EFFECT OF THE VICTORY.

The victory of the democratic party, about which, at this writing, there seems to be no sort of doubt, will inaugurate a new era of prosperity for the whole country. The American people have so many years been the witnesses as well as the victims of republican corruption that they had come to regard a dishonest administration of public affairs as a matter of course—a sort of disposition of rogues and villainy inseparable from politics. They have winked at this sort of thing until the republicans felt justified in putting forward their worst representative man—the man who, of all others, most nearly represents the personal and official immorality of their party. This was a little more than the self-respect of the country could stand, and the result is that Mr. Blaine and his corrupt party have been repudiated at the polls by the honest voters of the country. The change thus wrought about is a fortunate and a happy one, and the whole country will soon begin to feel the effects of it. Especially in the south will the good effect be appreciated. The horde of vicious office-holders that has been fristed on this section by an unsympathetic administration will disappear, and with that disappearance we shall all begin to feel that we are a part and parcel of a common country. The patriotism that exists in the south, and that has existed in the face of oppression and humiliation, will be renewed, revived and invigorated, and we shall feel that the old flag represents something substantial.

We have heard from various sources that the negroes are uneasy at the prospect of a democratic president, some of them appearing to have an idea that an attempt is to be made to put them back into slavery. This is the result of the malicious teachings of the white republican officials who, true to their mission of hate and prejudice, have sought and are seeking by every means in their power to educate the blacks to regard with suspicion and hatred their best friends. There is as much substantial good in a democratic administration for the negroes as for the whites. It frees them once and for all from the bondage of the disreputable white men who have been controlling them, and it will gradually bring them into closer and friendlier relations with their white friends. Every movement that has been inaugurated for the benefit and advancement of their race will be carried out and improved upon. Moreover, the southern white feeling, that the success of the democratic party has given them new responsibilities, will seek by every means in their power to help the negroes in the direction of progress, and to ameliorate their condition. In other words, the success of the democrats means a general jubilee for all classes of honest citizens.

THE MINOR RESULTS.

Sixteen states elected governors, and the honors are easy, according to the latest returns. The democratic governors elected are: Perry of Florida, Gray of Indiana, Marshall of Missouri, States of North Carolina, Thompson of South Carolina, Bates of Tennessee, and Ireland of Texas—seven all told. Governor Waller of Connecticut has a plurality, but as the constitution remits the election to the legislature in the absence of a majority, a republican will be selected. The republican governors elect are: Eaton of Colorado, Oglesby of Illinois, Martin of Kansas, Robinson of Massachusetts, Alger of Michigan, Dawes of Nebraska, Carrier of New Hampshire, and Rusk of Wisconsin—seven in number.

The next house of representatives will be democratic. The democrats have gained in Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Carolina, Texas and Virginia. The republicans have gained in California, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. According to all the returns that have been received, the democrats will have a majority of 49, as against 67 in the present house. The tidal wave of 1882 has been reduced somewhat, but by no means overcome.

The democrats have not fared so well in the senate. They carried New York, but they could not win in the gerrymandered legislative districts. Mr. Lapham, a republican, will be succeeded by a republican. We have lost a senatorship in Oregon. Mr. Slater's term expires March 4th. If the legislature of California is republican, Mr. Farley will be succeeded by a republican.

The house will therefore be democratic and the senate republican until March 4th, 1887.

"RUM, ROMANISM AND REBELLION."

When we consider how close the vote of New York is—close and yet practically ample, it would be interesting to know how many votes were turned at the eleventh hour by the alliterative phrase of the Rev. Dr. Burdard. It should be remembered that the Blaine scheme looked from the outset of the campaign to the securing of enough Irish democrats to out vote the independents. They were therefore courted and flattered; their prejudices against England were played upon in a thousand cunning ways; and Mr. Blaine, after a journey of 8,000 miles came to the chief seat of the Irish vote in his own party. But just as all things were going on swimmingly, apparently, stepped Dr. Burdard and threw a wet blanket upon the entire prospect. The Irish democrats saw at a glance the hypocrisy of the republican machine, and they turned back to the old party that stood up for their rights against know-nothingism, will never be known. It may be that the one phrase of alliterative bigotry turned the scale in New York, and that determined the result of an election in which ten millions freemen participated. We are aware that we are dealing in idle speculation, but in the easy hour of victory a few idle surmises are not wholly out of place.

Dr. Burdard was however, altogether outside of the truth when he charged three-fifths of the white people of this country with intolerance. In the democratic state of Georgia the liquor traffic is being confined, year by year, to narrower limits, and the more democratic the state, the less drunkenness one is apt to find in it.

The doctor's religious intolerance we need not stop to discuss, nor his attempt to fight the war over again. We fully forgive the aged doctor; for he certainly lent a helping hand to the democrats and independents of New York at a critical moment, and he should have praise for the good he did do, whether he meant well or not.

One of the meanest tricks of the campaign was played upon St. John at Oathe, his home in Kansas. St. John owned a paper which the editor of the campaign impudently left in the hands of an employee. While the boss was traveling over the country whooping up the coldwater people, the heartless subordinate transformed the sheet into a Blaine organ. St. John will bounce him when he gets home.

There is a man in this country who seems to be very busy engaged in making arrangements to get himself into serious trouble. His maiden name is Jason Gould.

"There seems," said Deacon Smith last Wednesday, to be some trouble in New York. The deacon was right. There was a peck of republican trouble in New York.

Some of the white republicans around Atlanta have been telling the negroes that they would be put back into slavery if a democratic president was elected. On the contrary, the negroes will be permitted to hold their own property and hire them out to the convict laborers.

DOUBTLESSLY would hardly do justice to the account. Give us two lines and a bundle of relics.

The fat fellows will have to retire.

It is said that Jason Gould has telegraphed his congratulations to President Cleveland, but what does an honest man wish with congratulations from such a fellow as Jason Gould?

How is it that such papers as the Times, the World, the Herald, the Sun and the Journal of Commerce cannot compel the associated press to report the news honestly? Are the news agencies controlled by such a rascal as Jason Gould?

This fact is, Atlanta just wallowed in a sea of American filth yesterday.

It is reported that Jason Gould and a number of prominent republicans have been holding consultations. If Jason Gould continues to improve as he has been improving, the position he will hold is a very important consultation with quite a number of American citizens before he is much older. We fling out this general hint in order that Jason Gould need not be taken by surprise.

TO EDITOR DANA.—Dear Sir: We are still of the opinion that Brother Blaine is beaten.

LITTLE BILLY CHANDLER will no doubt bitterly regret to hear we got there first, so to speak.

DOUGLAS DUBLEY meant what he said when he remarked that he would resign; but he ought to remain so to go out with the other boys. The more the merrier.

CIVIL SERVICE reform, as we remarked before, is the best safeguard against the party machine. And please don't characterize that they'll be turned out.

COLONEL TOM HARDENMAN, speaking on the steps of the customhouse, yesterday, thought he heard a deafening sound behind him.

WHEN they come to find out what it means, the negroes will be as well pleased with a democratic administration as the democrats themselves.

BLAINE'S relics of the campaign consist of four dilapidated high hats. They bear every indication of having passed through the rack crusher.

JOE MULLENBURN is no longer known as the continental lion. The arithmetic men of the republican camp have done him in.

HERE are a few figures for farmers. The number of farms in this country in 1880 was 2,044,077. In 1880 it was 2,083,077. In 1880 our farms were worth three thousand millions of dollars. They were worth over ten thousand millions of dollars. The farmers are prospering. They are not only feeding the world but putting money in their pockets.

THE EXPOSITION.
H. B. C. Dalton, Dalton, Ga.: What is the programme for the opening of the New Orleans exposition?

It will be opened on the 16th of December by President Arthur. The congress of the United States and the Mexican congress will be present. The details of the programme have not yet been given to the public.

THE TOBACCO CURE.

Subscriber, Oxford, Ala.: Is the tobacco cure for wounds, etc., etc., as mentioned by General Thos. L. Cligman, endorsed by the physicians?

The doctors hold aloof from it. A French physician, whose name escapes us, is a believer in it.

H. A. MILLS.

H. A. Mills, N. J.: How does Georgia compare with New Jersey for grape culture and wine-making?

Georgia is better adapted to grapes and wine-making than New Jersey. We have several vineyards and some of the best American wine is made here. Large sections of our state are especially adapted to vineyards.

Men like to hear a brilliant talker, and yet they never always speak contemptuously of his judgment. The fine talker is popular. He is sought and is invited to many places to entertain people and draw a crowd. But people do not go by his advice. They act upon the judgment of men who are apparently dull and uneducated.

A BUTTER CO. manufacturer who is on a tour of inspection through this country makes some rather gloomy predictions concerning the cotton industry. It is the general belief that the present adverse state of trade is due to over production. Even the manufacturers take this view of the situation. Our English friend, however, says that the main reason for the dull condition of trade is the people of America are every year consuming less of the products of the looms of this country. The cotton and woolen industries are in a state of depression. The price of raw cotton is at a low ebb. The price of manufactured goods is at a low ebb. The price of labor is at a low ebb. The price of money is at a low ebb. The price of everything is at a low ebb. The price of everything is at a low ebb.

As civilization advances, and as education becomes universal, insanity increases. In 1860 we had in this country 24,000 insane persons; in 1870, 27,000; and in 1880, 30,000. While this increase has been very great among our native whites it has been much greater among our foreign population.

In 1860 we had one native white insane person to every 1,200 of the population. In 1880 the ratio was one in every 1,200. In 1880 it was one in every 400. In the foreign population the ratio was still greater. In 1860 there was one insane person in every 1,000 foreigners; in 1870, one in every 400; and in 1880, one in every 200. These are alarming figures and it must be recollected that they do not include all the defective persons who come under the expressive head of criminals. The experts who endeavor to explain this state of affairs pretend to find the causes in our mode of life, and in such conditions as the liquor habit, a national preaching presidential elections, financial panics, etc. Without accepting or rejecting the conclusions of the scientists, we have enough to do in dealing the grim results.

BEFORE the smoke of battle clears away it is in order to congratulate Congressman Fullerton, of the New York World. As an editor, Mr. Fullerton has done bold and brainy work for the democracy, and as a congressman it goes without saying that he will do his level best for the party and the country.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The republicans should be thankful for such states as Iowa and Minnesota.

The duties of the president did nobly.

KENTUCKY sends a solid delegation to congress—a gain of two.

BEN BUTLER'S alleged boom turns out to have been a trifling incident.

A TATTOOED WRECK—James Guilty Blaine—is the way the Buffalo Times puts it.

MR. EDWIN'S and Mr. Conkling are about to open an institution for dead men.

Also this was the magnificent candidate, the man who was going to sweep the country like a cyclone.

The inter-state commerce regulation fight is believed to go on. Congressman Reagan is re-elected.

The re-election of Senator Voorhees is assumed by the probable capture of the Indiana legislature.

MAJOR JOHN W. DANIEL, of Virginia, a new member, will be one of the brilliant men in the next house.

A MILLION ON CLEVELAND.

Mr. Sutton, of the Stock Exchange, Offers a Million Dollars on Cleveland.

NEW YORK, November 7.—In the Hoffman house this evening a large crowd during the evening, made up principally of democrats. They were in a cheerful mood which was in strange contrast with the gloom which had been the great result of the election of Cleveland. Every democrat felt confident of success, and gladly covered any money they had in the stock market. Numerous bets at the rate of $100 to $750 that Cleveland would carry the state by a majority of 5,000. A republican made a bet of $10 to $25 that Blaine would win.

During the evening a substantial looking man started the crowd in the middle of which it is drawn.

"If I forfeit that amount if my check for $1,000,000 is not honored by the bank on which it is drawn."

The crowd would bet with Mr. Sutton, who was perfectly willing to stake his million on the result. Mr. David Johnson bet $1,000 even in the Hoffman house that Cleveland would carry the state.
